5th September 2023

We hope you have all had a lovely summer break and we are looking forward to seeing everyone back to school tomorrow - Wednesday 6th September!

Here are a few reminders for the start of term.

School Uniform

All children from Reception to Year 6 must wear school uniform – it is compulsory. Our uniform is:

- Grey jumper or cardigan, grey sweatshirt or grey fleece
- Grey trousers, grey shorts, grey skirt or grey pinafore
- White polo shirt or white school shirt or blouse
- Flat shoes or trainers that fasten securely (do not fall off when running)

If your child comes to school wearing an item that is not school uniform they will (wherever possible) be given an item of spare uniform to change into. Children will not be told off or punished in any way for not wearing uniform but they will be expected to change if asked to.

If you are struggling to buy or wash uniform please speak to Aimee Gemmell who will signpost you to organisations such as Re:Uniform who can offer support.

New School Day times from September 2023

Our school start time will change to 8:45am and we will finish at 3:15pm.

Breakfast club will still be available from 8am.

Children must have PE kits on the following days:		PE kit: light blue polo shirt and black shorts, leggings or jogging bottoms  It is essential that children bring PE kit to school every week so that they are prepared for their lessons

Stay and Read

Stay and Read is starting up again this term. It will take place on a Monday afternoon from 3pm and will give you the opportunity to come into school enjoy a story with the class and read with your child.

Children will stay with their own classes so if you have more than one child in school please attend at a different class each week. We look forward to seeing you there.

Many thanks for your continued support
